My dear Sir :

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the pamphlet memorial of the bi-centennial of Christ Church a few days ago, and to thank the Christ Ch Historic Association for it -

I have read it with much interest, and am very glad to own it.

Christ Church as you may imagine is full of interest to me on account of the connection of my wife's family as well as that of my own with it -

The title to the land on which the edifice stands, is to day held in the name of Joshua Carpenter, one

my family who executed a declaration of trust to the effect that the land had been purchased partly with his own funds and partly with funds contributed by the "Community of Christ Church" and that he held it for a church and burial ground after the use of the Church of England - (1695)

My wife's father was Rector of the church for many years succeeding Bishop White -

I was married in Christ Church - my children were baptised there, and my dead have been buried from there -

One could scarcely have more associations clustered about the dear old Church than I have.

Very truly yours papers were read by Rathbone Gardner, Esq., on the "Education of the Young;" by E. T. Warner, Esq., of Delaware, on Laymen's Work in the Church, and by Silas McBee, Esq., on Church Architecture.

The Rhode Island Churchmen's Club entertained their guests at a dinner, in the evening, at the Trocadero. A letter was read from Bishop Clark, who was represented by Rev. Dr. Richards. Speeches were made by the President of the Club, D. L. D. Granger, Esq., Messrs. Cole, of New York; Skiddy, of Connecticut; Paine, of Massachusetts; Warner, of Delaware; Lewis, of Pennsylvania, and McBee, of North Carolina. A variety of topics was presented to the large company assembled, among them was a severe, not to say scathing criticism of the politicians in Washington for their hesitation and delay about ratifying the Arbitration Treaty. The comments elicted most enthusiastic applause.

On Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the New England department of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew convened in Providence. The sermon was preached in the church of the Messiah, by the Rev. Dr. Frisby, of Boston, and the business meetings were held in the parish rooms of St. John's church. There were interesting and animated discussions respecting various departments of Brotherhood work.

One point of great interest which attracted attention was a tendency in some quarters of losing sight of the original purpose for which the Association was formed. One representative stated that in the parish from which he came the tendency to cultivate the social element to the neglect of the work was so great that it became necessary to disband and start anew. It is to be hoped that a stop will be put to this abuse wherever it may exist.

This week, the Rev. Frank W. Baker, of Cincinnati, is conducting a mission in St. James' church, Providence. It began on Tuesday evening and will be continued until after Sunday. May the blessing of God attend it!

Preparations for the Lenten services have been made in all the churches. Surely your correspondent who has so frequently met with such a cold reception when visiting Episcopal Churches cannot be speaking of experience in hospitable old Virginia. Here is something which presents a very different aspect. A man, who is not an Episcopalian, said to one of our clergy the other day: "I have been attending the Union —— church a long time, but nobody took any notice of me; lately I have repeated so that students might give their attention to one subject mainly for the year. Under this plan, the work of the junior class was the Bible in Hebrew and Greek; that of the middle class, ecclesiastical history; and that of the senior class, theology, dogmatic and practical. These subjects would run through two or three of the years, but the main brunt of labor for each year fell upon the single subject. This has been found of great advantage, since it has helped toward concentration of time and made the course thorough. A slight change has been made this year by introducing the history of the Ante-Nicene Church into the junior year. This serves to lighten the burden of the Hebrew and to make the first year more interesting. The usual number of elective courses are added to the curriculum.—Churchman.

The Church Army held a series of meetings in Emmanuel church, Boston. Gen. Hadley has been untiring in the effort to explain the mission of this enterprise, and has succeeded in interesting a number of Churchmen in its work. He has been assisted by Major Sarah Wray, Major Brown and Col. Jones. The mass meetings were in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, and the singing was carried on by the members of St. Stephen's Rescue Mission, composed of men.

We return thanks for a beautifully printed copy of the "Memorial of the two hundredth anniversary of the founding of Christ church, Philadelphia, it giving Dr. Seabury's sermon and the Rev. Dr. Ellis' (the rector) address, with other addresses bearing upon the history of this church and what it has been doing for two hundred years. Not in vain has this church been so long in existence.

The catalogue of the Philadelphia Divinity School for the current year has just appeared and offers some points of interest, especially the regulation concerning the degrees of B.D. and D.D. Through an amendment in the charter, the school received power last year to grant degrees in course, and encouraging evidence has already been received of the extent to which this privilege will widen the influence of the school and advance the cause of Biblical and theological scholarship. The Bachelor's degree is not to be bestowed on all at graduation, but as is the case at Princeton and elsewhere, only on condition of further study for at least one year in the preparation for means of grace which our Lord has ordained for our help, and which we can only neglect at our peril.

5. Our religion, if it is Christ's religion, cannot be selfish, nor must our Lenten self-examination and amendment concern ourselves alone. Our endeavors and our offerings for others' spiritual and temporal welfare will require consideration. Do these show a real acknowledgment of the commandment to love our neighbour as ourselves, any real attempt to fulfil the law?

Diocese of Alabama.

Missionary work in Alabama is missionary work, with emphasis on "work." Very striking stories come from the missionaries of the far West, but very few clergymen serve more places than the seven congregations of Mr. Mellichampe, the seven of Mr. Tucker, and the eighteen of Dr. Beard.

Bishop Wilmer's recovery from the severe illness of last month is a cause of deep thanksgiving by the entire Diocese On the night of January 16th he was not expected to live more than a few hours. Our beloved diocesan has been so strong that he has come to four-score years, but we pray that there may be added to him more years of labor without sorrow.—The Record.

Diocese of North Carolina.

The Convocation met in Grace church, Weldon, last week. There were present, Bishop Cheshire, Rev. W. J. Smith, of Scotland Neck, dean of the Convocation; Revs. F. C. Baylis, B S. McKenzie, M. L. Poffenburger, Gaston Battle, G. W. Phelps, and Rev. Mr. Picard.

Bishop Cheshire preached to a large congregation and confirmed two girls and four young men. The morning's sermon was by Rev. Mr. Baylis, and Mr. McKenzie preached the sermon in the evening.

Several business meetings have been held, and the ladies of the Auxiliary societies had a meeting to consider missions. All the services were largely attended and much interest was manifested.

As we go to press we learn that the Rev. Geo. S. Mallory, D.D., of the New York Churchman, died Tuesday morning, March 2.

her small estate ... Mission, $500 to St. Philip's church, Crompton, $200 to the Church Building Fund, $200 to the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society and $300 to the St. Elizabeth Home.

It may be of interest to know that Mr. John Nicholas Brown, one of our Standing Committee, a deputy to the General Convention and a member of the Board of Managers of the Missionary Society, has just given $200,000 for the erection of a building for the Providence Public Library. He is a brother of Mr. Harold Brown who several years ago gave $100,000 for the endowment of missionary episcopates.

Diocese of Massachusetts.

THE THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL AT CAMBRIDGE.—The ... of the school for 1896–1897 has just been ... work, makes the list ... larger than ever before. The number of men enrolled as undergraduates is also larger than last year and perhaps than in any preceding year, there being thirty-four regular and special students. An encouraging feature is the increasing proportion of men who are college graduates, or who have had at least a partial college course.—Church Standard.

Diocese of Vermont.

Bishop Hall is now in Bermuda, on account of his health, but sends a Lent Pastoral to the congregations in his Diocese, in which he says:

Lent is a time for amending or deepening our spiritual life. Let us in this set before us a definite aim. A little reflection will tell each person ... some definite point where amend-

Church Defence cause, as vindicated by ... of St. Asaph, and is a master of the vernacular.

The opening of St. Saviour's, Southwark, marks the completion of another step in the task of making the Church's work in South London answer more adequately to the enormous needs of the varied population to which it ministers. Nothing was lacking that could lend dignity and impressiveness to the ceremony of Tuesday last. The heir apparent was present, marking the union of Church and State, and the ties which, in no reign more strongly than in that of his illustrious mother, join the Church in loyalty to the throne. The Archbishop of Canterbury was there, a sign, for as many as will have it so, that every great work, such as the restoration of St. Saviour's, is a task which demands the sympathy and will bear upon the interests of the whole Church.

spare time.

I am very proud and happy to have the book, as I want to show it to several of my Aunts not at present residing in the City who were members of Christ Church in their youth.

With many Thanks
Sincerely Yours
Clarissa S. Wilson.
